

I am a retired broadcaster with over fifty years experience in the industry. Sinclair's plan to air an attack on Senator Kerry this close to the election is not only unethical and illegal, it is immoral and un-American. I know FCC regs; calling this fraud "news" is a blatant lie. If the FCC does not act to prevent this travesty, the credibility of the Commission will sink to the level of Sinclair's: zero.